

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Schulte Roth & Zabel to Host 14th Annual Shareholder Activism Conference

New York – May 30, 2024 – Schulte Roth & Zabel, which has represented clients in some of the highest-profile and most complex campaigns in investor engagement, is excited to announce its 14th Annual Shareholder Activism Conference, which will take place on Wednesday, June 5. The Conference is a platform for stakeholders to discuss best practices for influencing corporate behavior through active ownership and an opportunity to connect the corporate governance community. Attendees will gain insights into the latest trends and legal frameworks governing shareholder activism, in addition to the experiences of people involved in the year's most significant campaigns.

Conference Highlights:

- Speakers: Renowned industry leaders and practitioners in shareholder activism and corporate governance will engage in impactful conversations. Confirmed speakers include leading activists, advisors, and journalists.
- Panel Discussions: Interactive panels will include:
 - A Conversation with Cristiano Guerra, Head of Institutional Shareholder Services' Special Situations Research team
 - Fireside Chat with Leading Activists
 - Perspectives on the 2024 Proxy Season
 - Updates to the Activism Litigation Landscape
 - Private Capital and Regulatory Trends
- Networking: Opportunities to connect with institutional investors and corporate governance leaders that shape the activism space.
