Why Schulte?

Choosing the right place for your career is important. If you join our team, we can offer you a unique experience.

At Schulte, we are known for two things: doing great work in the financial services sector — and many related industries — and doing things a little differently than many of our peers. Our firm culture defines who we are, and we are committed to fostering conditions that allow our lawyers to develop their skills. We're proud to have a team of young, dynamic and entrepreneurial lawyers, complemented by experienced partners who are considered the best in their field. We have an atmosphere of professional informality where our lawyers are encouraged to be themselves and work collaboratively across practice groups. We work as a team to fulfill our clients' needs, and we encourage client contact early in our associates' careers. Our resources, people and expertise are what make us great. We hope you will continue to explore a career with Schulte.

We encourage you to visit our website or contact the Recruiting Department for more information about our firm.

A typical day for me would be drafting documents for a hedge fund or working on an IPO during the day, then going to a firm event in the evening, such as a box suite for The Weeknd, playing catch on Citi Field after a Mets game, or a networking event with one of the practice areas in the firm.

James McGuire, NYU

From partners taking time out of their day to review the "big picture" of a deal, to associates reviewing the finer details of each transaction document, the summer program is designed to promote the growth of each and every summer associate.

David Weintraub, Penn

Attorneys at Schulte are genuinely passionate about pro bono and social responsibility in general.

Jason Li, Cornell

I came into the summer excited about the opportunity to take on assignments from Schulte's highly regarded Shareholder Activism group. The experience did not disappoint, as I was given substantive, interesting and delightfully complex work. The cases were front page WSJ material, the stakes high and the attorneys first-rate.

Abraham Schwartz, Harvard

The transparency at Schulte opens many opportunities to ask hard-hitting questions, making me confident in my decision to be here.

Brittany Bell, Brooklyn

Schulte's summer program has exceeded my expectations in every aspect. From the amazing social events that allowed me to bond with summer associates and attorneys, to the approachable partners who are genuinely committed to supporting your professional development, I can't imagine spending my summer anywhere else.

Jinhwa Seo, NYU

Whenever I had a question about an assignment, I always knew I could pick up the phone or walk down the hall, and one of the attorneys on the case would be willing and happy to help.

Ryan Lefkowitz, Syracuse

People here have a stake in your success and will support you in every step of your development.

John Conlin, Michigan

I could not be happier spending my summer at Schulte. I think it is unique to find a biglaw firm where the people are so warm and open, where the work is stimulating, and where you can have amazing experiences at our summer events.

McKenzie Haynes, Georgetown

At Schulte, I really appreciated the time the attorneys spent teaching me the background on an assignment so that I understood the full picture, even when my task was more specific. It showed how interested they were in my training and my experience.

Talia Jaffe, Fordham

Because I had never lived in New York prior to coming to work at Schulte, I was, admittedly, pretty nervous. But the nerves subsided once I saw how welcoming everyone was from day one, and I knew I had chosen the right place for me.

McKenzie Osborne, Duke

The mentor program has been amazing. I feel like my associate mentor has been like an older brother welcoming me into the family.

Josh Christensen, UVA

Mentorship at Schulte is both formal and organic. From the first day, you develop meaningful connections that will carry not only through your summer, but deep into your professional career.

Amy McMahon, Columbia

This summer surpassed my expectations. As a woman of color, I was looking for a place where people would be committed to my growth as an attorney. The relationships that I've built here have made it evident that Schulte is such a place.

Cristell Fortune, Columbia

Schulte is a unique biglaw experience. Because the firm is concentrated largely in New York, there are so many opportunities to interact with partners, associates and administrative staff who all help to instill a genuine sense of community.

Sydney Altman, Emory
