Schulte is proud to support NYC Asylum Application Help Center

Aug 4, 2023, 12:00 AM

Schulte Roth & Zabel is proud to support the New York City Asylum Application Help Center in helping migrants submit more than 1,300 asylum applications since the end of June. Schulte lawyers have volunteered to assist in the asylum application process and business staff have worked to send donations in support of the help center.

Schulte was one of the private law firms recognized by New York City Mayor Eric Adams for working pro bono with the City to find a pathway forward for asylum seekers.
