MFA Network Miami 2024

January 29 - February 1, 2024

MFA Network, Managed Funds Association's flagship business development event, is the leading networking conference for the alternative investment industry.

MFA Network 2024 will welcome financial industry leaders from around the globe, including leading allocators, hedge fund managers, and service providers, for:

- Invaluable in-person one-on-one allocator meetings;
- Educational programming;
- and Peer-to-peer, investor-led discussions.

MFA Network 2024 in Miami provides unparalleled thought-leadership on emerging investment issues and trends that are critical to allocators and hedge fund managers across all strategies in today's economy.

This year's program offers panel discussions and roundtables on the key issues facing investment managers, including hedge funds and their allocators. Speakers will provide insight on the trends they're watching in the broader financial markets and guidance on how investors can stay on top of shifting dynamics.
