

AWARDS & RECOGNITION

Schulte partner Kelly Koscuiszka selected as role model by The Hedge Fund Journal “Private Markets: 50 Women Leaders 2024”

July 15, 2024

Kelly Koscuiszka, Schulte Roth & Zabel partner and co-chair of the firm’s Investment Management Regulatory & Compliance Group, has been selected as an inspirational role model for future cohorts of women leaders by The Hedge Fund Journal’s inaugural report “Private Markets: 50 Women Leaders 2024.”

The report showcases women holding prominent investment positions in portfolio management, fund selection and allocation, emphasizing the importance of diversity. These distinguished honorees also champion DEI efforts both within their organizations and throughout the broader industry via committees, interest groups, professional associations and specific initiatives.

About Kelly

Kelly practices at the complex intersection of regulation and emerging technologies, which includes rapidly evolving areas of artificial intelligence, alternative data, web scraping, electronic communications, data privacy and cybersecurity. Several major regulatory issues have shaped the industry over the past year and Kelly has been on the front lines in facing them. She is a leading resource for advising private funds managers on the acquisition and use of alternative data and their adoption and use of artificial intelligence.

Read the full report here.

Related People

Kelly Koscuizka

Partner
New York

Practices

INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT

CYBERSECURITY AND DATA PRIVACY

PRIVATE EQUITY

REGULATORY AND COMPLIANCE