Schulte Representation in Greenbrier Hotel Health Fund Dispute Highlighted in AP

August 26, 2024

Schulte Roth and Zabel's representation of Amalgamated National Health Fund featured prominently in an Associated Press article concerning the dispute over unpaid health fund contributions at The Greenbrier Hotel, owned by West Virginia Governor Jim Justice.

Partner Ronald Richman with associate Abdul Alwattar are representing Amalgamated, with the firm's efforts aimed at securing $2.4 million in overdue payments. This legal action is vital to ensuring that approximately 400 employees retain their health coverage amidst the hotel's financial uncertainties and ahead of its planned auction due to unpaid debts.
