

AWARDS & RECOGNITION

Schulte partner Stephanie Breslow named one of The Top 25 Blockchain and Digital Assets Attorneys of 2025

March 5, 2025

Schulte Roth & Zabel partner and Investment Management Group co-head Stephanie Breslow has been named by Attorney Intel as one of The Top 25 Blockchain and Digital Assets Attorneys of 2025. The honored attorneys are pioneering legal frameworks for digital finance, decentralized technologies and emerging blockchain applications.

“Navigating the legal landscape of blockchain and digital assets requires a balance of innovation and compliance. As the industry evolves, our role as legal advisors is to provide clarity, mitigate risk and help clients unlock the full potential of decentralized technologies within a secure regulatory framework,” Stephanie said.

Stephanie focuses on forming private equity funds and advising investment managers on regulatory concerns. She also guides fund sponsors and institutional investors in raising seed-capital for fund managers. Stephanie advises on acquisitions of interests in investment management businesses, funds of funds and other institutional investors’ investment activities. Investment strategies involving blockchain technology, virtual currency offerings and digital asset transactions are particular strengths of Stephanie’s.
